Announced Audit

AUDIT EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Review of a conventional radish growing operation. The growing area audited includes approximately 18 acres in production with no irrigation used. The growing season typically runs from May through October, with two or three planting cycles per year. Water for spray mixing is sourced from offsite well at a central farm base. No workers were present during the audit inspection. Adjacent land use includes wooded or undeveloped and other agricultural production (other radishes, corn and soybeans).
